

LAHORE: (Thursday, 7 November, 2019): Vice Chancellor, University of Engineering and Technology, Lahore /Chairman Board of Governor, Centre of Excellence in Water Resource Engineering (CEWRE) Prof Dr. Syed Mansoor Sarwar presided over a meeting of Selection Board at committee room of CEWRE on Tuesday.

The board was consist of a list of world-known panel of experts including Prof. Dr. Noor Muhammad Khan (Director, CEWRE), Mr. Shahzaib Abbasi (Representative of HEC Islamabad), Engr. Riaz Ahmad Khan (Ex. Chairman, Federal Flood Commission), Engr. Tariq Altaf (Ex-Vice President NESPAK) and Dr. Muhammad Abid Bodla (Member, Infrastructure, P & D Department, Govt. of Punjab).

The board interviewed candidates for posts of Lecturers and professors in CEWRE. Six (6) candidates and one (1) candidate appeared for the post of Lecturers and professors respectively.

While addressing the meeting, Dr. Syed Mansoor Sarwar said that resolving teachers' problems was one of his top priorities. He instructed the admin office to expedite the process of selections so that promotions and appointments could be made on teaching posts

