

"CONSULTATION ON INNOVATION FOR CLIMATE ADAPTATION AND RESILIENCE"

Online Meeting Report Convened by ADPC

CLIMATE INNOVATIVE CHALLENGE FOR WINING A RESEARCH GRANT

Director CEWRE attended the online meeting titled "Consultation on Innovation for Climate Adaptation and Resilience" convened by ADPC on Monday, 08 2021. Modalities of forthcoming "Climate Innovative Challenge" were discussed. The challenge call is expected in near future. All faculty members and students are advised to prepare their proposals for wining a research grant up to 150 K US$.

PRIORITY AREAS BEING LOOKED UPON ARE AS BELOW:

1. Climate Information & Analytics
2. Community Level Early Warning System
3. Climate-Smart Agriculture
4. Integrated Water Resources Management (IWRM)
5. Resilient Infrastructure - Transport & Power
6. Nature based Solutions for Adaption
7. Risk Financing Solutions