

73rd Meeting of Board of Governors of Centre of Excellence in Water Resource Engineering Held at UET Lahore

LAHORE: (Monday, 28 June, 2021):

Vice-Chancellor University of Engineering and Technology, Lahore /Chairman Board of Governor, Centre of Excellence in Water Resource Engineering (CEWRE) Prof Dr. Syed Mansoor Sarwar chaired 73rd meeting of the Board of Governors (BOG) at committee room of CEWRE on Monday, 28 June, 2021.

The meeting was attended by Prof. Dr. Noor Muhammad Khan Director CEWRE, as Member/Secretary; Mr. Waseem Ajmal Chaudhary Joint Secretary (IC), Ministry of Federal Education and Professional Training Islamabad; Dr. Muhammad Ashraf, Chairman Pakistan Council of Research in Water Resources (PCRWR) Islamabad; Ms. Noshaba Awais, Director Research and Development Higher Education Commission, Islamabad; Prof. Dr. Shahid Mahmood Baig (S.I), Chairman Pakistan Science Foundation, Islamabad; Prof. Dr. Bakhshal Khan Lashari, Professor Emirates US-Pakistan Centre for Advanced Studies in Water, Mehran Univ. of Engg. & Tech., Jamshoro, and Engr. Shahid Hameed General Manager WAPDA, Lahore.

The BOG deliberated and decided various important matters regarding the working and betterment of CEWRE. The BOG approved the revised recurring budget for FY: 2020-2021 & budget estimate for FY: 2021-2022, including a 10% raise in salaries of employees and pension, in addition to 25% Disparity Reduction Allowance (DR) for the employees of the Centre.

Considering the importance of Water for socio-economic development of the nation, the Chair and the Members emphasized the need of enhancement of research and development activities at CEWRE in future and extended their full support to the administration of the Centre in this respect. Director of the Centre promised to do its best for delivery of the high-quality research and development products, as per the direction of the worthy members.

Glimpse of 73rd BOG meeting at CEWRE UET Lahore on 28-6-2021.

