STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE ON HOW TO PREPARE A SUCCESSFUL PAPER

Date: September 28 at 11.00 am Germany time

Writing for peer-reviewed publication is an important part of the career of researchers and scientists. However, research students and early-career scientists often face difficulties in publishing their research papers. We planned a workshop that is dedicated to guide you into how to write your paper the best way possible.

Presenter: Dr. Nabil Nabil Khelifi - Senior Editor at Springer Nature
